

SPACE AND CRITICAL CARTOGRAPHIES (INTL ST 259)

New Graduate Seminar

Spring 2024 (Wednesdays, 2-5pm)

Prof. Brenda Nicolas, Department of Global and International Studies

This seminar will explore the grounded practices of place, spatialized power relations, time, and discursive and material consequences of situated struggles through local, global, and transborder processes that produce distinctive localities, racializations within specific histories, borders, and political geographies.
